The name of the corporation hereby created shall be "General Conference Corporation of Seventh-day Adventists."

Article II — Duration.

The term for which said corporation is organized and the duration of its existence is to be perpetual.

Article III — Business and Objects.

The particular business and objects for which this corporation is formed are for the purpose of diffusing moral and religious knowledge throughout the entire world by means of churches, organizations, publishing houses, medical or health institutions, educational institutions, publications, missionary agencies, and all other instrumentalities and methods appropriate and available for and tending to the advancement of such ends and aims, and to that end to receive loans, gifts, and deposits of money; to issue notes; to grant annuities; to make loans; to acquire, possess, and hold title to real, personal, and mixed estates in this or foreign countries, either in trust or otherwise, by gift, bequest, devise, or purchase, and to have power to pledge, incur, sell, and convey the same by such mortgages or other instrument of security or conveyance as may be suitable; it being, however, expressly declared that this corporation is not for personal profit or gain to any one, but that all its property and effects must be used and expended in carrying into effect the aims, ends, and objects of its existence.

1904 "Adventist" Babylon Created:

In 1904 the General Conference fulfills the beginning of prophesy as they officially form a "New Organization" as it "Reorganizes" itself into a CORPORATION. This would now be called the General Conference Corporation of Seventh-day Adventists. This can be found in the 1905 Year Book.
